Labor Working Group Kicks Off the SPUSA Labor Rising Campaign

Labor Rising is a project of the Labor Working Group of the SP USA. It works to support labor organizing, activity, and actions as part of the SP's commitment to building working class power.

It works to connect labor activism to SP locals and members, to support the labor movement through strike support, union solidarity and union democracy through solidarity unionism.

Labor actions currently include the Teamsters-UPS contract, Starbucks Workers United, UAW, and other local actions.

Local Actions and Organizing

May Day in the Twin Cities

Members of the Twin Cities Metro Area SP-USA Local joined approx. 500 activists on May 1st, celebrating May Day 2023 at the March for Immigrants and Workers' Rights in Minneapolis.

Northern NJ Local Co-Organizes Police and Prison Abolition Event in Montclair

The Northern New Jersey Socialist Party co-organized a screening of the upcoming film "Reimagining Safety" in Montclair NJ with local community organizations.

More than 100 residents came out to see the new film directed and produced by Matthew Solomon and attend a post screening discussion moderated by local civil right activist and organizer Renee Johnston of Public Square Limited. Renee was the main motivator of the panel and did an incredible job getting people out. Northern NJ Local members attended and assisted.

While the film covered so many topics and was well received, the panel discussion was a great opportunity for community residents to ask questions and discuss the topic. Panelists included Christina Amira Khalil, Chuck Modi, Imani Oakley, Olayemi Olurin and Alex Vitale.
